

World Economic Forum on the Middle East 2009

Shuttle Bus Timetable for Accredited Media

(From Amman and Airport to King Hussein Bin Talal Convention Center)

Dead Sea, Jordan 15-17 May 2009

WHAT YOU NEED TO BOARD SHUTTLE BUSES

Accredited media must use the shuttle service between Amman/Airport to enter the security zone and go to the Convention Center at the Dead Sea. There will be no access to vehicles without official car stickers.

In order to board the shuttle bus you must have a World Economic Forum' Entry Pass (or security badge).

As of 13 May until 18 May Entry Passes will be available at the following locations:

- Welcome desk at Queen Alia International Airport Amman
- FORUM Security Checkpoint at the Dead Sea

IMPORTANT: Without having been granted media accreditation earlier, you will not be allowed to board the shuttle buses. Only accredited media will be given an Entry Pass to board the shuttle buses and enter the King Hussein Bin Talal Convention Center (KHBTC). Once they have received an Entry Pass, accredited media must keep their passes until they pick up their three-day security badge at the Media Registration Desk at the Dead Sea. The security badge will serve as credentials throughout the entire meeting.

Collecting Entry Passes for Accredited Media

The Media Team of the World Economic Forum will be providing entry passes to accredited media at the below mentioned locations. The Entry pass is essential in order to board Forum shuttle buses from Amman to the Dead Sea, the airport to the Dead Sea, to enter the security zone at the Dead Sea and the Convention Center. No media will be allowed to board shuttle buses or have access to the King Hussein Bin Talal Convention Center (KHBTC) without having been granted an official entry pass.

IMPORTANT – For accredited media, in order to be issued with your personal entry pass, please bring your passport or ID card.
